I'm doing a 90 minute audio conference on Internaitonal Recruiting with the folks over at Kennedy Information on Wednesday, January 10, 2007 " 1 P.M. EST. Its not free but the topics are very relevant to today's market so I thought I would tell you about it. Here is what I am covering:

Learn how to:

Create a successful international recruiting practice

Assess your current global staffing structure

Identify the global talent acquisition landscape for your industry

Locate potential recruitment hub locations in other countries

Understand culturally specific topics such as intercultural communication and avoid cross-cultural sensitivity issues

Avoid pitfalls in the design of a global recruitment effort

Implement techniques used to source talent in other countries

Attendees earn continuing ed credits towards their HR Certification.

Registration is $225 per phone line for subscribers to Kennedy Information's Recruiting Trends or Executive Recruiter News or for non-subscribers it is $275 per line. Registration for this event includes a copy of the PowerPoint.

You can register On the web Or e-mail customerservice@kennedyinfo.com Or call Customer Service at 800-531-0007

Happy New Year 2007!

Shally

Austin Texas Real Estate

Attorney Austin ; Austin Texas Real Estate Intercultural Communication: A Practical Guide by Tracy Novinger, Successfully communicating with people from another culture requires learning more than just their language. While fumbling a word or phrase may cause embarrassment, breaking the unspoken cultural rules that govern personal interactions can spell disaster for businesspeople, travelers, and indeed anyone who communicates across cultural boundaries. To help you avoid such damaging gaffes, Tracy Novinger has compiled this authoritative, practical guide for deciphering and following "the rules" that govern cultures, demonstrating how these rules apply to the communication issues that exist between the United States and Mexico. Novinger begins by explaining how a major proportion of communication within a culture occurs nonverbally through behavior and manners, shared attitudes, common expectations, and so on. Then, using real-life examples and anecdotes, she pinpoints the commonly occurring obstacles to communication that can arise when cultures differ in their communication techniques. She shows how these obstacles come into play in contacts between the U.S. and Mexico and demonstrates that mastering the unspoken rules of Mexican culture is a key to cementing business and social relationships. Novinger concludes with nine effective, reliable principles for successfully communicating across cultures. A real estate investment professional currently residing in Austin, Texas, Tracy Novinger writes from extensive research and her personal experiences of living and working in cultures as diverse as Aruba and Tahiti. She was born in the Caribbean, studied in Brazilian schools, speaks several languages, has traveled extensively, and has a master's degree in communications. Attorney Austin They Call Me Sid Rock: Rodeo's Extreme Cowboy Sid Steiner burst onto the professional rodeo circuit in 1995 at 20 years old. At the 2002 Wrangler National Finals Rodeo in Las Vegas, Sid captured the world championship with a spectacular 10th-round performance that capped two weeks of competition in Sin City. Steiner went on to sign endorsement deals with Wrangler, Pepsi, Pace, Dodge, Jack Daniels, and Bull's Eye BBQ Sauce. They Call Me Sid Rock tells the story of a Texas dynasty that started with Buck Steiner, born in 1899. Buck's son Tommy took the family lead and ran a growing real estate empire in Texas and an emerging rodeo company that produced rodeos all over the world. Sid Steiner's father, Bobby, was the 1973 World Champion Bull Rider. Steiner's book will chronicle his rise to the pinnacle of the sport in a scant seven years and the remarkable way he has captured the imagination of young and old rodeo fans across the nation. From his all-state line-backer days at Anderson High School in Austin to sending Ty Murray's bodyguards to the hospital in a San Antonio barroom brawl, Sid Steiner has fought the stereotypical rich kid persona. Sid Steiner carries four generations of American legends in his blood. This book chronicles the new generation of cowboys making waves in the fastest growing sport in America. Attorney Austin Crescent Real Estate Equities Co. - Crescent Real Estate Equities Co. is a Fort Worth, Texas-based real estate investor with holdings mainly in office and hotel properties, including several landmark buildings in the southern United States. The Real World (Austin) - The Austin Season of The Real World premiered on June 21, 2005 on MTV. It is the sixteenth edition of the popular reality series, featuring seven strangers living in a house in Austin, Texas. Texas Is the Reason - Texas Is the Reason is a musical group founded by former Shelter guitarist Norm Arenas and 108 drummer Chris Daly. A foundational quartet in the post-Sunny Day Real Estate movement of emo or emocore music, Texas Is the Reason played melodious but forceful rock music before disbanding in 1997. Six Flags Over Texas - Six Flags Over Texas is a major amusement park located in Arlington, Texas and was the first park of the Six Flags chain. The park opened on August 1, 1961 following just a year of construction and an initial investment of $10 million by real estate developer and oil baron Angus G. austintexasrealestate Trump University's Real Estate Financing also introduces you to an innovative group of real estate guides, Trump University's Real Estate 101 doesn't just concentrate on a particular niche—like fixing and flipping or foreclosure investing—nor does it offer a simplistic overview of investing basics.
