My Spirit is alive to God

My Spirit 19th November 2006 0647 AGC

A few weeks ago I preached on the Holy Spirit and His ministry to us.

I shared scripture to answer this question. In what ways does the Holy Spirit minister to us?

I preached on John 16:8-11

8 And when He has come, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: 9 of sin, because they do not believe in Me; 10 of righteousness, because I go to My Father and you see Me no more; 11 of judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged.

I want to follow this up by looking at the spirit of man.

I want us to be sure that our own spirit, which comes alive to God when we receive Jesus as Lord and Saviour, is fully a functioning.

We all know that man is a spirit being. We are a spirit, have a soul; mind, will and emotions, and live in a body.

The natural man's spirit is dead to God and the things of God. When you are born again the Holy Spirit of God himself comes and lives in you and your spirit comes alive to God. The Holy Spirit's ministry to you is by and through your spirit man inside you.

One of the first results of being born again and receiving the Holy Spirit affects your conscience. This important function of man's spirit comes alive &#8211; or rather wakes up and is there to guide you into right and wrong. The natural man's conscience is comatose &#8211; pretty well asleep &#8211; needing very strong circumstances to get it to work. In some it is stronger than in others due to upbringing, culture and Godly influences.

The Holy Spirit is not convicting the believer of sin. The conscience of the born again spirit of man convicts born again man. The Holy Spirit convicts the world, the unsaved, of their sin nature as part of the process of bringing them to faith in Jesus. [John 16:8-11]

The sleepy conscience of a natural man is easily overcome because man's desire to do something is often so much stronger than the weak protestations of his conscience.

For us the leading of the Holy Spirit should be natural &#8211; he leads us and guides us through our Holy Spirit empowered human spirit. This is called &#8216;walking in the spirit&#8217; rather than &#8216;walking in the flesh&#8217;. The conscience corrects, reprimands or makes us feel uneasy. There is now guilt where there once was acceptance (as inevitable) and excuses for conduct, words said, and attitudes. Our spirit too has another function &#8211; listening to the Holy Spirit. He assures of the truth that we are forgiven, that we have been made the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus. There is now no condemnation. Jesus took our guilt on himself when he took our sin at Calvary. Romans 8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

There is a condition here!

That we &#8216;walk according to the Spirit&#8217;.

This walk will lead us to repentance and to confession. Repentance means &#8216;to change direction&#8217;. I.e., walk in a new direction, not in the same old sin led direction. Confession means &#8216;to say the same as another&#8217;. In this case it means saying the same about our sin, failing, stinking attitudes etc. as God Himself says &#8211; agreeing with Him. This implies that we feel the same abhorrence as He feels.

&#8226; Romans 8:4 that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

SO &#8226; Galatians 5:16 I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

I am at odds with some translations which capitalise Spirit indicating the Holy Spirit. In these scriptures it could equally refer to the Holy Spirit indwelt spirit of man &#8226; Galatians 5:25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

If we are Born Again then we are expected to take advantage of all that is ours in this new life in Jesus, such as, the guidance of the Holy Spirit in our lives through our Born Again spirit. That is &#8220;walking in the spirit&#8221;.

Galatians 3: 1 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was clearly portrayed among you as crucified? 2 This only I want to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? 3 Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now being made perfect by the flesh?

So what is it like to Walk in the Spirit or walk in the spirit?

&#8216;In the spirit&#8217; is described by John

&#8226; Revelation 1:10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord&#8217;s Day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet,

In context this must mean a very close communion with the Holy Spirit, so close that we become aware of the spiritual world and spiritual things; the things of the natural world fade away.

This is a supernatural event which any may feel in prayer, in worship, in our quiet times and is a natural ability of our spirit - communion with God.

Such spirit to Spirit and Holy Spirit to our spirit communion is a function of the re-born spirit of man.

We worship through our spirit.

&#8226; John 4:23 But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. 24 God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.&#8221;

We pray through our spirit.

&#8226; Ephesians 6:18 praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints&#8212;

These are spirit to Spirit communication. We get there by becoming more and more aware that we are spirit not just flesh. Without this awareness we are only touching the fringes of the new life that belongs to us.

God wants us to be aware of His Father Heart towards us. He is Spirit and we can only respond to Him, His love and His power in the spirit. He talks to us- in the Spirit too, Holy Spirit to our spirit. We hear Him in the spirit.

Let&#8217;s explore by being aware of our Life in the Spirit and walking in the spirit.

As we will become more aware we will see the difference between walking in the flesh and how he wants us to walk.

&#8226; Galatians 5:25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

[Some time I will explore with you the Spirit-Soul Connection. What does,&#8220;the lover of my soul&#8221; mean?]

Open Question: Who translated the New World Bible and why should I believe it is best?

The JW translation has no names attached... are they secret? How do we know they are qualified? What texts did they translate from? How did they arrive at Jehovah being a proper way of translating the name of God?

Is this true from <http://www.bible-researcher.com/new-world.html>

The publisher of this version has never made public the names of the translators. But former members of the Governing Body of the Jehovah's Witnesses organization have identified the members of the committee as Nathan H. Knorr (President of the organization), Frederick W. Franz (Vice-President), George D. Gangas, and Albert D. Schroeder. According to Raymond V. Franz, the "principal translator of the Society's New World Translation" was Frederick W. Franz. (1) According to M. James Penton, "to all intents and purposes the New World Translation is the work of one man, Frederick Franz."

what are his qualifications to say his translation is best?

Freelancers threatened by Brussels bureaucracy

Brussels, Belgium (O-R): Freelancers and the self-employed face an uncertain future as a result of a European Green Paper that threatens to lead to restrictions on the flexibility that is vital to many workers' livelihoods. The European Commission's Green Paper on labour law, released today, has prompted both disappointment and alarm from the Professional Contractors Group (PCG), which represents the UK's freelancers. Although the EC's stated aim is merely to promote a public debate, it is feared that it could result in a proposal for a directive to restrict freelancing and self-employment.

Mapuche-Microsoft translation lawsuit

Santiago, Chile (Reuters): Mapuche Indians in Chile are trying to take Microsoft to court in a legal battle that raises the question of whether anyone can ever "own" the language they speak. The row was sparked by Microsoft's decision last month to launch its Windows software package in Mapuzugun, a Mapuche tongue spoken by around 400,000 indigenous Chileans, mostly in the south of the country. Chile's Mapuche Indians allege that Microsoft translated Windows software into their native language without getting tribal leaders' permission.

Immigrants push up translation bill

Edinburgh, Scotland (Scotsman): THE cost of police interpreters has reached record levels, as forces draft in translators to deal with the country's rapidly growing immigrant population. The rising number of non-English speakers has led to the amount being spent on police translation services going up by more than a third in the past year, to almost Â£300,000.

Darfur negotiations hindered by translation

London, UK (LRB): The full text [of the Darfur Peace Agreement] was tabled only on 25 April and the Arabic translation three days later. The Darfur rebels' delegates in Abuja were still struggling to master the 515 paragraphs when they were called on to make a final and binding decision; none of their people in Darfur had even seen a copy.

Murakami wins the Franz Kafka Prize

Prague, Czech Republic (P Post): Haruki Murakami has been awarded the coveted Franz Kafka Prize. [â€] Writing in an online translators' roundtable, Jay Rubin, Harvard University professor and longtime Murakami translator, described his first encounter with the writer's work: "I can still see the colors of the dreams escaping into the atmosphere from the unicorn skulls near the end of the book when I think back to that first reading of Hard-Boiled Wonderland, and I remember how much I regretted closing the last page and realizing

I couldn't live in Murakami's world anymore."

'State secrets privilege' blocks fired translator from suing FBI

New York, USA (USA Today): Sibel Edmonds, who formed the 100-plus member National Security whistle-blowers Coalition in 2002, began working as a linguist for the FBI the week after the Sept. 11, 2001, terrorist attack. Several months into her contract, she discovered "shoddy" translations relevant to 9/11 created by translators who had "failed the proficiency exams," she says. A report by the Justice Department's inspector general subsequently confirmed that at least one translator had failed the FBI's language proficiency exams. Edmonds says the translator was sent to Guantanamo Bay to translate "the most sensitive terrorist-related information" from interviews of detainees.
